Do not cling to the Cross only in difficult moment!
¡No te aferres a la Cruz sólo en los momentos difíciles!

by Fr. Marlon Atendido

"The soul is placed in the body like a rough diamond and must be polished or the luster of it will never appear."

At times it is good to ask: Why do people come to Church only when in need of God? People especially those who are sick and suffering from any form of physical and mental ailments. They realized the need for God only as the last resort, especially when medical help seems hopeless.

More often, we cling to the cross only in times of difficulties. In the gospel today, Jairus, came to Jesus because his daughter is dying and begged Jesus to lay his hands on her that she may live. I have wondered as a priest many times when people only call the Church for a priest because someone is dying. And I asked myself; where were these people when they are healthy. Do they remember God at all? And at other times people are like the woman afflicted with hemorrhages she had greatly suffered at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had and nothing happened. So now, if we look at the lives of people who succumb to such difficulties, God becomes the last hope of cure.

In other words, our faith comes to work more fully under pressure and only in difficult situations. What happened to our faith when we are strong and healthy? Do we remember God at all?

So now, let us not wait to draw ourselves closer to God only when evil things have befallen us, rather cultivate that same faith always in both good and bad times of life.

* * * * *

A veces es bueno preguntar: ¿Por qué la gente viene a la Iglesia sólo cuando necesita a Dios? Personas, especialmente aquellas que están enfermas y padecen cualquier tipo de dolencia física y mental. Se dieron cuenta de la necesidad de Dios sólo como último recurso, especialmente cuando la ayuda médica parecía desesperada.

Más a menudo nos aferramos a la cruz sólo en tiempos de dificultades. En el evangelio de hoy, Jairo vino a Jesús porque su hija se estaba muriendo y le rogó a Jesús que le impusiera las manos para que pudiera vivir. Como sacerdote me he preguntado muchas veces cuando la gente sólo llama a la Iglesia para pedir un sacerdote porque alguien está muriendo. Y me pregunto; ¿Dónde estaban estas personas cuando están sanas? ¿No se acuerdan de Dios en absoluto? Y otras veces la gente es como la mujer aquejada de hemorragias que había sufrido mucho por manos de muchos médicos y había gastado todo lo que tenía y no pasó nada. Así que ahora, si miramos las vidas de las personas que sucumben a tales dificultades, Dios se convierte en la última esperanza de curación.

En otras palabras, nuestra fe llega a funcionar más plenamente bajo presión y sólo en situaciones difíciles. ¿Qué pasó con nuestra fe cuando somos fuertes y saludables? ¿Recordamos a Dios en absoluto?

Así que ahora, no esperemos para acercarnos a Dios sólo cuando nos hayan sucedido cosas malas, sino que cultivemos esa misma fe siempre, tanto en los buenos como en los malos momentos de la vida.
