How many times have we heard that expression? Yes, we know that is in the Bible, but how many times do we do it? It's impressive to know it and not do it.

Just as when we were little and our parents ordered us something and we didn't do it, what God himself teaches us is similar.

In love we can say so many things, but only summarizing it as God tells us, he who loves follows me and fulfills my command, and in Jesus that is fulfilled that there is no greater love than that which gives one's life for one's friends!

The fear of love founded on the perfection of charity rises to an even more excellent and sublime degree. It is not born from fear, nor from punishment or the desire for reward, but from the greatness of love. It is the mixture of respect and affection that a son has for his father, a brother for his brother, a friend for his friend, a wife for her husband, not for fear of blows or reproaches but for the very fact of not to hurt others.

May the Holy Spirit enlighten and strengthen us to fulfill this commandment out of pure love for our Lord Jesus!

¿Cuántas veces hemos oído esa expresión? Si, sabemos que eso está en la biblia, ¿pero cuantas veces lo llevamos a cabo? Es impresionante saberlo y no hacerlo.

Así como cuando éramos pequeños y nuestros padres nos ordenaban algo y no lo hacíamos es semejante lo que Dios mismo nos enseña.

¡En el amor podemos decir tantas cosas, pero solo resumiéndolo como Dios nos dice el que ama me sigue y cumple mi mandato, y en Jesús se cumple eso de que no hay mayor amor que el que da la vida por sus amigos!

El temor de amor fundado en la perfección de la caridad se eleva aun grado mas excelente y sublime. No nace del miedo, ni del castigo o del deseo de la recompensa, sino de la grandeza del amor. Es la mezcla de respeto y afecto que un hijo tiene por su padre, un hermano a su hermano, un amigo por su amigo una esposa a su esposo, no por miedo a los golpes ni a los reproches si no por el mismo hecho de no herir a los demás.

Que el Espíritu Santo nos ilumine y fortalezca para cumplir este mandamiento por puro amor a ti señor Jesús!
